Dear Sir,

Sub: Appointment as an Independent Director of Jyoti Limited (“the Company”)

On behalf of the Company, I am pleased to inform you that upon recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) and the Board of Directors of the Company (“the Board”), the Shareholders of the Company have approved your appointment as a Non-executive, Independent Director w.e.f., 28th July, 2025 at the 81st Annual General Meeting held on _____ 2025. This letter sets out the terms of your appointment.

Appointment

1. In accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and other applicable laws, you will serve as an Independent Director on the Board for an initial term of five years commencing from 28th July, 2025 till 27th July, 2030.
2. In compliance with the provisions of Section 149(13) of the Companies Act, 2013 and the relevant Rules made thereunder, your directorship is not subject to retirement by rotation.

Status of Appointment

3. You will not be an employee of the Company and this letter shall not constitute a contract of employment. You will be paid such remuneration by way of sitting fees for meetings of the Board and its Committees as may be decided by the Board.
4. You will have no entitlement to any bonus during the appointment and no entitlement to participate in any employee stock option scheme operated by the Company or any Group Company.

Reimbursement of Expenses

5. In addition to the remuneration described above, the Company will, for the period of your appointment, reimburse you for travel, hotel and other

Incidental expenses incurred by you in the performance of your role and duties as an Independent Director of the Company.

Time Commitment

6. As an Independent Director you are expected to bring objectivity and independence of view to the Board's discussions and to help provide the Board with effective leadership in relation to the Company's strategy, performance, and risk management as well as ensuring high standards of financial probity and corporate governance.
7. The Board generally meets at least four times in a year. The Audit Committee generally meets at least four times in a year. Besides, there are other Committees of the Board such as the Nomination and Remuneration Committee & Stakeholders Relationship Committee, the meetings of which are ordinarily convened as per requirements under the law for the time being in force. You are expected to attend the meetings of the Board and the Committees to which you may be appointed, and also Shareholders' meetings and to devote appropriate time to discharge your duties effectively.
8. By accepting this appointment, you confirm that you will be able to allocate sufficient time to meet the expectations from your role to the satisfaction of the Board.

Role and Duties

9. Your role and duties will be those normally required of an Independent Director under the Companies Act, 2013, the relevant Rules made thereunder and the applicable clauses of the Listing Agreements entered into by the Company with the Stock Exchanges. There are certain duties prescribed for all Directors, which are fiduciary in nature, and are as under:
 - You shall act in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association, as may be amended from time to time.
 - You shall act in good faith in order to promote the objects of the Company for the benefit of its members as a whole, and in the best interest of the Company.
 - You shall discharge your duties with due and reasonable care, skill and diligence.
 - You shall not involve yourself in a situation in which you may have a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interest of the Company.
 - You shall not achieve or attempt to achieve any undue gain or advantage either to yourself or to your relatives, partners or associates.
 - You shall not assign your office as Director and any assignments so made shall be void.
10. You shall also abide by the 'Code for Independent Directors' as outlined in Schedule IV to the Companies Act, 2013, and duties of directors as provided in the said Act and in SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015. For your ready reference, the code of Independent Directors is attached to this letter as Annexure A.

Independent Professional Advice

11. There may be occasions when you consider that you need professional advice in furtherance of your duties as a Director and it will be appropriate for you to consult independent advisors at the Company's expense. The Company will reimburse the entire expenses at actual.

Disclosure of Interest

12. It is accepted and acknowledged that you may have business interests other than those of the Company. As a condition to your appointment, you are required to declare/disclose any such directorships, appointments and interests to the Board in writing in the prescribed form.
13. If you have any material interest in any transaction or arrangement that the Company has entered into, it should be disclosed not later than when the transaction or arrangement comes up at the Board Meeting, in order to comply with the various provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules made thereunder.
14. In the event that your circumstances seem likely to change and might give rise to a conflict of interest or, when applicable, circumstances that might lead the Board to revise its judgment that you are independent, the same should be disclosed immediately to both the Chairman and the Company Secretary.

Evaluation

15. The Board of Directors will carry out an evaluation of the performance of the Board as a whole, Board Committee and Directors on an annual basis. Your appointment and re appointment on the Board shall be subject to the outcome of the yearly evaluation process.

Training of the Board

16. The Company will conduct training(s) for the Independent Directors of the Company as may be required from time to time, in compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act and the Rules made thereunder.

Code of Conduct

17. During your tenure, you are required to comply with regulations as contained in Schedule IV under the Companies Act, 2013 and also with the Code of Conduct for the Members of the Board of Directors and Senior Management of the Company (copy enclosed).

Confidentiality

18. All information acquired by you during your term as Director of the Company is to be treated as confidential and should not be released, either during your tenure or following termination (by whatever means) to third parties without prior clearance from the Chairman of the Company unless such disclosure be required by such any governmental, statutory and regulatory authority established under the laws for the time being in force. On reasonable request, you are required to surrender any documents and other materials made available to you by the Company.
19. Your attention is also drawn to the requirements under the applicable regulations and the Company's Insider Trading Code - (copy enclosed) which concerns the disclosure of price sensitive information and dealing in the securities of the Company. Consequently, you should avoid making any statements or performing any transactions that might risk a breach of these requirements without prior clearance from the Chairman of the Company.
